The Kramer Ausenco Wantoks Squash Team took the title as the champion in the Port Moresby mid-week squash competition held in October this year (2014). The team consists of five enthusiastic players, as shown above. Despite two lost sets, Kramer Ausenco Wantoks came out victorious winning three sets to beat the Southern Cross All Stars. This win marks the second time that the Kramer Ausenco Wantoks have proven to be Number 1 in the competition.

The competition itself consists of five other teams. Kramer Ausenco Wantoks have been part of this competition for three years now. Kramer Ausenco has been the proud sponsors for the team in those three years and will continue to support the team in the New Year.
