

Factsheet

Central Bank of Solomon Islands Estate

Commercial, Residential and Industrial

Project Title

Central Bank of Solomon Islands Estate

Location

Honiara, Solomon Islands

Client

Central Bank of Solomon Islands

Project Type

Commercial

Year Completed

2012

Project Description

Central Bank of Solomon Islands (CBSI) proposed to develop its own estate at Riffle Range Honiara, which would include a two storey office building, executive & management houses, recreational facilities, shopping centre for basic household groceries, proper road networking and access between houses, drainage and street lighting

Kramer Ausenco Role:

- Provided engineering plans & designs
- Provided engineering and architectural plans & design for a fully air conditioned two storey CBSI office building with six departments and two Governor Offices

- Provided plan and design proper road access
- Provided plan and design proper street lighting

Project Role

- Architects
- Project Managers
- Building Services Engineers
- Civil and Structural Engineers