

Kramer Ausenco gets behind Carbine Club of Vanuatu

Kramer Ausenco, the largest engineering and program management firm within the South Pacific Region gets behind sports and the young Carbine Club of Vanuatu and sponsored guest speaker – the legend Big Mal (Mal Meninga is Kramer Ausenco ambassador) to its sports luncheon on the 12 April 2013... “For sport and good fellowship”.

The Carbine Club was established in Melbourne in 1961. It is a luncheon club where members can meet, swap yarns, celebrate sport and create lasting friendships. As the years passed the Carbine Club concept proved popular, with new clubs opening throughout Australia and as far afield as Hong Kong, South Africa and London, Papua New Guinea and Vanuatu. The heart of Carbine Clubs is about supporting all sports.

Kramer Ausenco (Vanuatu) Ltd manager and Vanuatu resident Danny Amanaki is one of the pioneers of the newly formed Carbine Club of Vanuatu in March 2012.

Mal Maninga visits Port Vila

Picture Above (From right to left) The president of Carbine Club Vanuatu Tony Ryan, Big Mal & Danny during the Vanuatu Carbine Club luncheon